Dear Parent

It is rightly said by William Blake, “What is now proved was once only imagined.” In the past few years, the world has been revolutionised and led to groundbreaking changes in education. What we once thought was just a possibility, is now the way we learn. The outbreak of the pandemic has brought about great changes in our lives. One such change is the transition to virtual schooling.

One of the biggest challenges of virtual schooling was to give our students the needed exposure and opportunities to participate and indulge in constructive activities. But as the saying goes, “Where there’s a will, there’s a way.” With the support of our parents and teachers, we have finished Term 1 of this session, witnessing a plethora of online activities with lots of participation from our students. This gave us the motivation to capture the spirit of RSJMS and present it in a way that marks our growth, unfolds our imagination, and gives life to our thoughts and aspirations. With each passing year, with the invaluable contributions from our students, Sandesh has become an example of brilliance. Taking it forward with the same spirit, we present to you the latest edition of Sandesh, as an e-magazine.

I hope you all enjoy scrolling through the pages of your first e-magazine and exploring the digital world of Sandesh which includes many new features like – audio and video links, the latest virtual ventures at RSJMS, a special section by the school counsellors and as always, our students’ wonderful and inspiring stories, poems, artworks and messages which will surely hold the interest and admiration of our readers.

In addition to the PDF file, you can also view the e-Sandesh in form of a flipbook. The link to the flipbook is - <https://fliphtml5.com/cydhc/ycoc>
